SPIRITS TURPENTINE-This ar ticle has been subjected to numerous fluctuations and changes during the current week. At the close of our last report we left the market dull and de clining at 41 cents. Friday (the first day) under a better tone to the New York market and under the influence of the decreasing stock, there was rather a firmer feeling and prices became more settled and regular and upwards of 600 casks changed hands at 42 cents. Futures were also in good demand, and 400 casks were sold. one week's delivery, sellers' option, at 42 cents. Saturday morning the maiket opened firm at the previous day's rates, 431, but latter under stronger reports, and (during the evening) advanced to 44 cents. Monday Saturday's prices ruled the transactions, with large sales at 44 cents. Tuesday there was a reaction and sellers, finding themselves unable to obtain previous rates, sold at 43 cents, a decline of 1 cent. Wednesday the same dull feeling was manifested and sales were made at a further decline of 1 cent. To-day the market closes quiet a d weak at 42 cents, with a dull tendency. The receipts for the week were 4,082 easks, against 3,132 casks for last week, showing an increase of 950 casks. The exports were 2,369 casks, against 2,695 casks for last week, and the stock in market is 5,236 casks. The
